

Elementary and High School Course Code Naming Conventions

Elementary schools and high schools use two separate sets of codes. Each value in the course represents a course characteristic. The courses used and unique characteristics represent the class type being taught.

Preschool grades only schedule Homeroom.

Course Codes for High School

| Course Code | Value Description | Value Options – Legacy courses may differ from these | |
|-------------|--------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
