

Our student of the month is junior Daniel Perez Cuevas. Daniel was born in Venezuela and came to the USA one year ago as a 10th grader. He studied English in Valenzuela and was placed in our bilingual population and placed in ESL 111 speaking very little English. Daniel's currently has a GPA of 3.7 and has Honors classes and is also enrolled in our ECC early college program. Daniel also has time to work with Mr. Teheran on Fridays to work on various projects. Daniel would like to continue his education and study video productions and one day be an animator. Daniel was chosen for his kindness, hard work, intelligence and his ability to reach out to others in need.
