

@ Dr. Marion A. Bolden Center

free performing arts classes!

grades: 9–12 • sep 30–dec 20

devised theater

Photo: Neriman DeShong

Tue @ 4–5:30PM
 Students hone acting, playwriting and cooperation skills while creating an original theater piece. In devised theater, the script originates from a collaborative, improvisational process, which is led through by a professional teaching artist.

hip hop music production

Photo: Kaitie Stein

Wed & Fri @ 4–5:30PM
 Learn beatmaking with an emphasis on drums/percussion by using music production programs. Students beats accompany movement, imagery, vocals, spoken word, rap recordings or live performance.

hip hop dance

Photo: Neriman DeShong

Thu @ 4–5:30PM
 Students will engage in this high energy approach to movement influenced by various styles of dance. Students with all abilities & levels will learn classic Hip Hop dance styles from Breaking, Popping and Locking to today's trends.

Dr. Marion A. Bolden Center
230 Broadway, Newark, NJ
Located across from Technology High School

Support provided by BD, Merck Foundation, Prudential Foundation, PSEG Foundation, Santander, TD Charitable Foundation, John and Suzanne William/Goldman Sachs Gives, Valley National Bank, Victoria Foundation and Wells Fargo.

To register or for more information, call 973.412.1910