Montclair State University's Educational Leadership Off-site Program prepares outstanding and dedicated school leaders. The results-oriented, practice-driven program guides aspiring district and building leaders to transform their passion for education into extraordinary achievements for schools and student learning. With a strong theoretical foundation and a practical structure framed around the principles of adult learning theory, the program provides students with the conceptual tools, practical knowledge, and professional experiences to become accomplished school leaders who promote student achievement and positively impact education for all children. The program integrates a variety of instructional delivery models with extensive and intensive fieldwork to develop accomplished strategic leaders in schools, school systems, and educational organizations.

- Courses offered in hybrid and online formats
- Convenient Schedules: all coursework will be offered in the district
- Discounted tuition for teachers
