Science Park High School in Newark Wins Magnet School of Excellence Award

March 10, 2011, Newark, NJ--- Science Park High School Principal Lamont Thomas recently announced that his school has been selected for a Magnet Schools of America (MSA) Magnet School of Excellence Award.

Science Park High School received this distinguished honor based on its high academic standards, innovative curriculum, diverse staff and students, and the consistent delivery of a high quality education to students.

An awards presentation will be held on May 17th at the National Conference on Magnet Schools which will be hosted by Indianapolis Public Schools in Indiana. At that time, Science Park and other magnet schools around the nation will receive plaques and compete for several cash awards.

Science Park High School is a nationally recognized Blue Ribbon School and one of the top magnet high schools in Newark. Principal Thomas proudly stated, "The students, staff, and parents continue to work at being nothing less than excellent. We take pride in being recognized at the local, state and national level."
